ALADDIN

A guide by TICKETTREE

ALADDIN THE MUSICAL IS A DISNEY STORY ABOUT 'STREET RAT' ALADDIN AND HIS FAITHFUL MONKEY, ABU, WHO SURVIVE BY STEALING FROM MARKET STALLS.

Aladdin falls in love with the Princess, Jasmine, and hopes to be her prince. However, the evil Jafar has other ideas and imprisons him instead.

Like the lavish palace in Aladdin, you can expect a show on a grand scale with extravagant sets, impressive special effects and a huge cast.

“UNEXPECTEDLY, ALADDIN IS GIVEN ANOTHER CHANCE WHEN JAFAR SENDS HIM ON A QUEST TO A CAVE OF WONDERS TO RETRIEVE A MYSTERIOUS LAMP. WILL THIS HELP ALADDIN TO WIN OVER JASMINE?”

All of the Aladdin musical classics feature, and you're set to have an unforgettable night watching one of the world's biggest musical.

CHECK OUT SOME OF THESE FACTS BELOW!

- Puppets for the show, including the original Iago, elephant, horse and snake puppets, were created by Michael Curry Designs, the same team that designed Tick Tock the Croc seen in "Fantasmic!" and the Sebastian puppet in "Mickey and the Magical Map."
- Aladdin and Jasmine discover "A Whole New World" as they soar above guests' heads aboard a flying Magic Carpet, passing by breathtaking monuments around the world.
- Genie's jokes frequently change to reference popular culture and current events, making each performance a unique experience.
- Some of the main creature roles, such as Abu, are turned into human characters that actually give new life to the show.
- Jafar, the villain in Aladdin, was voiced by Jonathan Freeman who also played the character as part of the Aladdin original Broadway cast.
